Dear Recruiters, Candidates and Guests,

On behalf of the Pittsburgh Education Recruitment Consortium executive board, it's my pleasure to welcome you to the PERC Education Job Fair! We hope your involvement in this year's fair will be productive and meaningful.

Several resources are available to help you successfully navigate today's fair. Be sure to start by reading the Tips for the Day handout found in your check-in packet. You can also approach any of our board members (wearing the blue PERC shirts) or find a volunteer (wearing the green buttons) to direct you to someone who can help. If you need medical attention, please go to the Monroeville Convention Center Office located near the Loading Docks.

A few highlights:

PERC by the numbers:

- Recruiting Organizations: More than 220 school districts or agencies representing 25 states
- Recruiters: 600+ representatives
- Candidates: 800+ pre-registered candidates from more than 30 colleges and universities; 200+ on-site registration candidates are expected today
- Interviews: 1000+ interviews will be conducted at booths and the interview area.
- Volunteers: 60 from our 24 consortia member institutions of higher education

Educator Excellence Award: Every year, PERC recognizes up to 10 future and current educators with a one-time $500 cash prize. Eligibility criteria and the application details are listed on the postcard in your candidate bag and www.percjobfair.org. The application and supporting documentation must be received by PERC no later than 5pm on Monday, May 13, 2024.

Employers: We invite you to place your business card in the box at the Employer Check-in booth by 11 a.m. for both the lunchtime and 3 p.m. drawings.

Finally, we value your feedback! Post-fair evaluations are available for both candidates and recruiters, and we rely on this feedback to drive decision-making for future fairs. Surveys can be taken on the day of the fair via QR code and will also be emailed after the event.

A very sincere thanks to the PERC Executive Committee Members for their dedication in planning our 2024 Education Job Fair, our volunteers for their assistance, and our event coordinator Kristen Ritter for her excellent work in organizing this event.

Best wishes for a successful day!

Sincerely,

Elisabeth Estes, President

Bering Strait School District (AK)Booth #: 26*Location: Unalakleet, AKWebsite: <http://www.bssd.org/>Interviewing At the Fair: Yes, at our booth. Collecting Resumes: YesDescription:

Bering Strait School District is located in western Alaska. Working and living in our region is far more similar to an overseas teaching position than it is living and working in the mainstream schools of the Lower 48 states. Cultural traditions are still strong, and we have 15 villages that still practice subsistence hunting and fishing as a lifestyle in the community. Nearly all of our students are Yup'ik, Siberian Yup'ik, or Iñupiaq. Teachers looking for a non-traditional, cross-cultural setting with a progressive district are ideal candidates. Our goal is to instill a passion for learning through quality instruction in small classroom settings. BSSD provides a competitive salary and benefits package, signing and longevity bonuses, paid staff development, and partially subsidized housing. We also offer adventurous educators the opportunity for memorable, one of a kind authentic experiences, outdoor adventures, and an Alaskan lifestyle that values richness in cultural tradition.

Description:

City Teaching Alliance (formerly Urban Teachers) is a rigorous, comprehensive teacher development program that integrates the intensive support, critical skills, and high-value credentials necessary for success in historically underserved and excluded urban classrooms, and across an educator's career. We improve educational and life outcomes of children in urban schools by preparing culturally responsive, effective career educators who accelerate student achievement and disrupt systems of racial and socioeconomic inequity. In partnership with American University, City Teaching Alliance participants earn a Master's of Arts in Teaching. The curriculum is hands-on, practical, and specifically designed for urban schools. Our program emphasizes literacy and math skills and includes coursework and dual certification in special education and a content area ensuring our teachers can meet the needs of all children.

Interviewing At the Fair: Yes, at an interview table.

Collecting Resumes: Yes

Description:

Kashunamiut School District is a single site district with one K-12 school, Chevak School. It is located in western Alaska in a region known as Nunaput, Land of the People, so called as an outcome of a treaty that no boundaries will be drawn across these lands for purposes of subsistence for the Cup'ik and Yup'ik people of Chevak, Hooper Bay, Scammon Bay, and Paimute. This site also gives meaning to Chevak, which means "a short cut made by man." The Cup'ik people of Chevak cut a canal 1060 feet long connecting two rivers to shorten the distance to their fish camps. The culture of the Cup'ik people is rich in Chevak and is integrated within the curriculum of Chevak School. The Village of Chevak is located 20 air miles from the Bering Sea and 130 air miles west of Bethel, which is a fifty minute flight from Anchorage, Alaska. It is a bush village and can only be reached by plane in the winter months and plane and boat in the summer months.

Interviewing At the Fair: Unsure Collecting Resumes: Yes

Description:

Through a strong community presence and numerous partnerships with local businesses and organizations, our schools focus on personalized learning, project-based learning, and giving back to the community what they have so graciously given us with the construction of new facilities. In 2014, the Liberal voters overwhelmingly supported a $127.8 million school bond that resulted in five brand new schools and major renovations to existing buildings across the community- the largest bond project in Kansas at the time! The addition of these schools helped us address overcrowding at neighborhood schools and created state-of-the-art learning environments that students, staff, parents, and community are proud of! There are approximately 5000 PreKindergarten through 12th-grade students in USD 480. Vision Statement: Every Learner will be empowered to discover their potential, become leaders of tomorrow, and make a difference in a world yet to be imagined.

Booth #: 203

Location: Reading, Pennsylvania

Website: <http://www.readingsd.org/jobs>

Interviewing At the Fair: No Collecting Resumes: Yes

Description:

Reading School District, located between Harrisburg and Philadelphia in southeastern Pennsylvania, has 19 schools, including 13 elementary schools, five middle schools and one senior high school. The district also has its own virtual academy (online learning) and shares a career and technology center with a neighboring district. With more than 17,800 students and approximately 2,000 staff members, Reading School District is the fourth largest school district in Pennsylvania and the sixth largest employer in Berks County. It is a Title 1, urban school district located in a high-poverty community, where 93 percent of students qualify for free or reduced-price lunch and 25 percent of students are English-Language Learners. We see the impact of poverty and inner-city life in our classrooms every day, yet in spite of that, we have the most dedicated, talented, intelligent and ambitious students you'll find anywhere in the world. #RSDproud

Description:

Wayne County Public Schools is the 21st largest school district in the state of North Carolina with 33 schools and approximately 17,000 students. Our school district employs approximately 2,500 people annually. Wayne County is located just one hour southeast of Raleigh, and about two hours to the pristine beaches that stretch the length of the Tar Heel Coast. The Great Smoky Mountains, America's most visited national park, is less than 6 hours away. Wayne County is known for its rich Civil War history, delicious barbecue pork, and famous Mount Olive Pickles. One of the biggest perks of living in Wayne County is we offer residents the advantages of big city living, but without the hassles. Because Wayne County is home to Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, many Air Force retirees from all over the country return to Wayne County to make it their permanent home. If you make Wayne County your home, you too will also find why Eastern North Carolina is a great place to live and work!

Top 10 Tips for Candidates

The PERC Education Job Fair is an effective way to meet employers, to build your network of contacts, to expand job prospects, to have conversations about your qualifications, and to—potentially—get a job! Here is a list of the Top 10 Tips to help you make the most of the fair.

- 1. CREATE A FREE HANDSHAKE ACCOUNT IF YOU DON'T HAVE ONE - Here's how to set up your Handshake account. Please note: Your college/university does not need to be a member of Handshake for you to sign up for a Handshake account. All students, regardless of where they attend, can sign up and use Handshake for free.
- 2. BUILD A COMPLETE PROFILE IN HANDSHAKE - Make sure to include your resume and class year, as well as other relevant information. This is the profile employers will see, so you want to make a good impression! Check out these helpful articles to learn how to upload a document to Handshake and build your profile from your resume.
- 3. REGISTER TO ATTEND THE FAIR - Click here to go directly to the event page and register to attend our fair.
- 4. IDENTIFY & RESEARCH REGISTERED EMPLOYERS - View the fair details page to see the list of participating employers. Research district websites to create a “Top Tier” list of prospective employers and a secondary list. Note important characteristics of each targeted district so that you can demonstrate that you’ve done your “homework” and are a conscientious, highly motivated candidate. A directory of employers and certification areas sought is available on the PERC website’s Candidate Information page.
- 5. REVIEW THE MAP - In the weeks leading up to the PERC job fair, the planning committee will post a diagram of the venue that will include the locations for each of the employers. Familiarize yourself with the layout of the space so you can plan out your route and make the most of your time at the fair.
- 6. PREPARE YOUR RESUME & HAVE IT REVIEWED - It is important for you to bring copies of your resume with you to the fair because many employers will be collecting resumes and this is how they will follow up with you to schedule interviews if they are interested in you as a candidate. Be sure to take some time before the fair to update your resume and have it reviewed by the staff in the career services office on your campus. Check out this resume guide on Handshake!
- 7. EMPHASIZE YOUR STRENGTHS - Prepare to talk about experiences on your resume, highlighting skills that administrators are seeking: student-centered learning, classroom management, teaching strategies, state standards, collaborative teaching, integration of technology, etc. Don't forget to convey enthusiasm and practice your elevator pitch!
- 8. DRESS PROFESSIONALLY & ARRIVE ON TIME - In order to make a great first impression, professional dress is recommended. If you're not sure about the appropriateness of an outfit, contact your career services Office. Also, during the fair, some employers will invite you to interview at their booth or in the interview area at a later time during the day. Be mindful of the time while you're interacting with other employers to ensure you arrive at your scheduled interviews at least five minutes early.
- 9. MEET WITH A VARIETY OF EMPLOYERS - Don't just focus on a few popular districts. Keep an open mind. Employers may not list every certification area when they register. Talk with them about anticipated opportunities. If they are not the representative who hires for your certification area, ask for the name and e-mail address of the person that you should contact. If an employer is unsure about future vacancies in your certification area, ask for their contact information so that you can follow up with them. This kind of networking can lead to a position later!
- 10. STAY ORGANIZED & FOLLOW UP - After your sessions with employers, note the recruiters' names and any special points you discussed related to: a) the application process, b) special characteristics of the district, c) follow-up YOU offered to do, etc. It is very important to keep track of this information after each conversation because it will blur quickly if you don't capture it right away. Send follow-up emails to employers that you would like to pursue further, and attach another copy of your resume. Don't forget to thank them for taking the time to introduce you to their organization.

BONUS TIP: Interested in talking to employers who are hosting same-day interviews? If so, look for booth signs with the following symbol:  These employers are conducting interviews at the fair.

For additional assistance, such as resume reviews and help developing an elevator pitch, contact your Career Services Office. Want more tips? Check out this article from Handshake!
