

Congratulations to our 2022 Award winners!

Kaylen Woods, August '22
Duquesne University

Kaylen Woods is a student teacher at Pittsburgh CAPA 6-12 and a Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellow at Duquesne University. After growing up in Hermitage, Pennsylvania, she studied Atmospheric Science at Penn State University and minored in Astrophysics. Over her career in science, Kaylen has learned that science is best when shared with others. She is forever grateful for the Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship for providing her with the opportunity to become a teacher and meet her incredible students at CAPA. She is certified in Physics, Math, and Earth and Space Science, and can't wait to have her own classroom next year!
