

Macy Jaskiewicz

Geneva College

2018 Educator Excellence Awardee

Macy Jaskiewicz recently graduated from Geneva College with a Bachelor's Degree in English with Secondary Education and the highest honors of valedictorian and summa cum laude. At Geneva, Macy was a member of English Club, Geneva Student Education Association, Alpha Chi, and Sigma Tau Delta. In 2017, Macy was selected to conduct a research project and compose a thesis on utilizing young adult literature in the classroom in order to effectively teach the classics. Beginning in August of 2018, Macy will be teaching eighth grade English at Saints Peter and Paul Catholic School. She will also be coaching the school's forensics and English festival teams. Macy thanks PERC for networking opportunities and the generous PERC Educator Excellence Award.

Pittsburgh Education Recruitment Consortium

